Dear Christopher,

We represent the Office of the Governor of the State of New York (the “Executive Chamber”) in connection with discovery that defendants Meta Platforms, Inc., Instagram, LLC, Meta Payments, Inc., and Meta Platforms Technologies, LLC (together, “Meta”) seek from the non-party Executive Chamber and other executive agencies in the New York Governor’s administration, including the non-party Office of Children and Family Services (“OCFS”), Council on Children and Families (“CCF”), Office of Mental Health (“OMH”), Department of Health (“DOH”), Department of Budget (“DOB”), and Department of State (“DOS”) (together with the Executive Chamber, the “Executive Agencies”). This correspondence has been authorized by OMH, in its voluntary effort to assist the parties and the Court in the above-captioned litigation.

Today, in voluntary response to the Rule 45 subpoena served on CCF dated August 28, 2024, CCF is voluntarily producing to Meta, via Dropbox, documents with the Bates range NYCCF_0000001–NYCCF_0000922.

This production does not waive or limit the Executive Agencies’ objections, including to the erroneous September 6, 2024 discovery Order issued by Magistrate Judge Kang, Dkt. 1117, nor does it constitute a waiver of any responses and objections to the subpoena or any discovery Meta seeks from the Executive Agencies. The Executive Agencies reiterate that the Attorney General of the State of New York does not have possession, custody, or control of their documents. The Executive Agencies maintain their position that the Court does not have jurisdiction over them and do not waive or limit any jurisdictional objections.

This production contains documents that are designated “CONFIDENTIAL” pursuant to the Discovery Confidentiality Order dated October 11, 2024, Dkt. 1209. OMH reserves all rights as to the documents being produced, and does not waive or limit any future assertion that the documents are protected by applicable privileges, protections, or immunities, including the attorney-client privilege, attorney work product protection, legislative privilege, or executive privileges, nor the right to object to the use of any document inadvertently disclosed or lacking a confidentiality designation. Any failure to designate documents as subject to that Discovery Confidentiality Order is inadvertent and shall not constitute a waiver.

Dear Christopher,

We represent the Office of the Governor of the State of New York (the “Executive Chamber”) in connection with discovery that defendants Meta Platforms, Inc., Instagram, LLC, Meta Payments, Inc., and Meta Platforms Technologies, LLC (together, “Meta”) seek from the non-party Executive Chamber and other executive agencies in the New York Governor’s administration, including the non-party Office of Children and Family Services (“OCFS”), Council on Children and Families (“CCF”), Office of Mental Health (“OMH”), Department of Health (“DOH”), Department of Budget (“DOB”), and Department of State (“DOS”) (together with the Executive Chamber, the “Executive Agencies”). This correspondence has been authorized by OMH, in its voluntary effort to assist the parties and the Court in the above-captioned litigation.

Today, in voluntary response to the Rule 45 subpoena served on OMH dated July 29, 2024, OMH is voluntarily producing to Meta, via Dropbox, documents with the Bates range NYOMH_0003744 – NYOMH_0005916.

This production does not waive or limit the Executive Agencies’ objections, including to the erroneous September 6, 2024 discovery Order issued by Magistrate Judge Kang, Dkt. 1117, nor does it constitute a waiver of any responses and objections to the subpoena or any discovery Meta seeks from the Executive Agencies. The Executive Agencies reiterate that the Attorney General of the State of New York does not have possession, custody, or control of their documents, nor the legal right, authority, or practical ability to access those documents. The Executive Agencies maintain their position that the Court does not have jurisdiction over them and do not waive or limit any jurisdictional objections.

This production contains documents that are designated “CONFIDENTIAL” pursuant to the Discovery Confidentiality Order dated October 11, 2024, Dkt. 1209. OMH reserves all rights as to the documents being produced, and does not waive or limit any future assertion that the documents are protected by applicable privileges, protections, or immunities, including the attorney-client privilege, attorney work product protection, legislative privilege, or executive privileges, nor the right to object to the use of any document inadvertently disclosed or lacking a confidentiality designation. Any failure to designate documents as subject to that Discovery Confidentiality Order is inadvertent and shall not constitute a waiver.
